

ImmiAccount

Your contact and passport details can be updated online via ImmiAccount if your application was lodged online. Further details are available at www.homeaffairs.gov.au/immiaccount under the 'Available services' tab.

Change of address

If you intend to change your residential address for more than 14 days while your application is being processed, you must tell the Department of Home Affairs (the Department) your new address prior to moving.

Change of passport details

You need to advise the Department of any changes to your passport details before and after a visa is granted to you.

Where a new passport has been issued or you hold an additional passport(s), you need to provide a copy of the bio-data page of this new or additional passport(s) with this form in order for the Department to confirm your identity.

Change of name in passport

Where a new passport has been issued with a new name, you should provide certified copies of the Bio-data page of the previous passport, new passport and official evidence of name change (eg. change of name certificate, marriage certificate) with this form in order for the Department to confirm your identity.

If you have an endorsement in your current passport with your new name as the principal name, you need to provide certified copies of relevant pages of the current passport and official evidence of name change with this form in order for the Department to confirm your identity.

Your departmental records will be updated and new details linked to your record on the Department's systems to facilitate your travel.

Note: Questions 2–8 are mandatory. These questions must be completed regardless of the details you are changing as they contain essential information necessary to process the change of contact details and to ensure that you will receive all written communications about the application.

If your request is to update your passport details you can check your details via Visa Entitlement Verification Online (VEVO) at www.homeaffairs.gov.au/VEVO

Updating authorised recipient's contact details
