

Using the Forced Marriage Community Pack

The Forced Marriage Community Pack includes a range of materials about forced marriage for use by people in, or at risk of, a forced marriage, the general community, the media and organisations and service providers. These materials are designed to be used either as stand-alone resources or to be incorporated into organisations' existing materials.

Resources for the general community

- Awareness-raising postcards (Avant Cards)
- Frequently asked questions sheet
- A4 information sheet
- Lesson plans and scenario based training

Resources for organisations and service providers

- Forced marriage information for organisations and service providers document
- Guidelines for NGOs: Working with trafficked people
- Anti-Slavery Australia e-learning

Resources for people in, or at risk of, a forced marriage

- Small fold-away booklet
- Safety plan template
- The www.mybluesky.org.au website

Resources for media

- Media fact sheet (information for media, including a list of spokespeople available to approach on forced marriage issues)