APPLICATION FOR A TARIFF CONCESSION ORDER (TCO)

IMPORTANT: Please read the information below carefully before completing this form.

Are you aware that substitutable goods are produced in Australia in the ordinary course of business?

- (a) If you are aware, based on information and your inquiries that substitutable goods are being produced in Australia in the ordinary course of business then you should not lodge an application for a TCO.

Do you need to apply for a new TCO?

- (b) Before lodging this application for a TCO, the applicant should determine whether a suitable TCO already exists. Information on existing TCOs is contained in the Schedule of Concessional Instruments (SCI), which is available on the Internet at www.customs.gov.au.

Have you verified that there are no substitutable goods produced in Australia (refer to questions 5, 6 and 7 of the form)?

- (c) Section 269FA of the Customs Act 1901 states "It is the responsibility of an applicant for a TCO to establish, to the satisfaction of the Chief Executive Officer (CEO), that, on the basis of:

- (i) all information that the applicant has, or can reasonably be expected to have; and
- (ii) all inquiries that the applicant has made, or can reasonably be expected to make;

there are reasonable grounds for asserting that the application meets the core criteria". The application is taken to meet the core criteria if, on the day of lodgement of the application, no substitutable goods were produced in Australia in the ordinary course of business.

Completing the application

- (d) Section 269F of the Customs Act 1901 requires that a TCO application be in writing, be in an "approved form", contain such information as the form requires, and be signed in the manner indicated in the form. This is the approved form for the purposes of that section.
- (e) Section 269F(3) states that a TCO application must contain:
- (a) a full description of the goods to which the application relates; and
  - (b) a statement of the tariff classification that, in the opinion of the applicant, applies to the goods; and
  - (c) if the applicant is not proposing to make use of the TCO to import the goods to which the application relates into Australia on the applicant's own behalf – the identity of the importer for whom the applicant is acting; and
  - (d) particulars of all inquiries made by the applicant (including inquiries made of prescribed organisations) to assist in establishing that there were reasonable grounds for believing that on the day on which the application was lodged, there were no producers in Australia of substitutable goods.
- (f) Question 1 to 8 must be answered. Failure to supply the information required by this form will result in rejection of the application (and in the loss of operative date).
- (g) Customs may require an applicant to substantiate, with documentary evidence, any information provided in the application form. Customs may also undertake its own inquiries as allowed under section 269M.
- (h) Receipt of your application will be acknowledged. Any resultant TCO will operate from the date of receipt.
- (i) Where an application is accepted as being a valid application, the identity of the applicant and of the importer for whom the applicant is acting will be published in the Commonwealth of Australia Tariff Concessions Gazette (the Gazette).
- (j) Further Information on the Tariff Concession System is available in Part XVA of the Customs Act 1901; in relevant Australian Customs Notices (ACNs), Practice Statements and related Instructions and Guidelines on the Internet at www.customs.gov.au; by e-mailing tarcon@customs.gov.au; or by phoning the Customs Information Centre 1300 363 263.
- (k) Attached to this form are extracts from relevant legislation. Also please refer to Australian Customs Notice 2010/03 containing advice as to what Customs and Border Protection considers to be 'reasonable inquiries', advice on conducting searches on national and international search engines and a suggested format letter that you might choose to use when contacting potential local manufacturers to determine if it produces substitutable goods.

Information for applicants - some useful definitions from the Customs Act 1901

269B Interpretation

substitutable goods, in respect of goods the subject of a TCO application or of a TCO, means goods produced in Australia that are put, or are capable of being put, to a use that corresponds with a use (including a design use) to which the goods the subject of the application or of the TCO can be put.

- (3) In determining whether goods produced in Australia are put, or are capable of being put, to a use corresponding to a use to which goods the subject of a TCO, or of an application for a TCO, can be put, it is irrelevant whether or not the first-mentioned goods compete with the second-mentioned goods in any market.

269C Interpretation—core criteria

For the purposes of this Part, a TCO application is taken to meet the core criteria if, on the day on which the application was lodged, no substitutable goods were produced in Australia in the ordinary course of business.

269D Interpretation—goods produced in Australia

- (1) For the purposes of this Part, goods, other than unmanufactured raw products, are taken to be produced in Australia if:
- the goods are wholly or partly manufactured in Australia; and
  - not less than  $\frac{1}{4}$  of the factory or works costs of the goods is represented by the sum of:
    - the value of Australian labour; and
    - the value of Australian materials; and
    - the factory overhead expenses incurred in Australia in respect of the goods.
- (2) For the purposes of this Part, goods are to be taken to have been partly manufactured in Australia if at least one substantial process in the manufacture of the goods was carried out in Australia.
- (3) Without limiting the meaning of the expression substantial process in the manufacture of the goods, any of the following operations or any combination of those operations does not constitute such a process:
- operations to preserve goods during transportation or storage;
  - operations to improve the packing or labelling or marketable quality of goods;
  - operations to prepare goods for shipment;
  - simple assembly operations;
  - operations to mix goods where the resulting product does not have different properties from those of the goods that have been mixed.
- (4) For the purposes of this section, the CEO may, by instrument in writing published in the Gazette:
- direct that the factory or works cost of goods is to be determined in a specified manner; and
  - direct that the value of Australian labour, the value of Australian materials or the factory overhead expenses incurred in Australia in respect of goods is to be determined in a specified manner;
- and those directions have effect accordingly.
- (5) The provisions of sections 48 (other than paragraphs (1)(a) and (b) and subsection (2)), 48A, 48B, 49A and 50 of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901 apply in relation to directions given under subsection (4) as if:
- references in those provisions to regulations were references to directions; and
  - references in those provisions to the repeal of a regulation were references to the revocation of a direction.

269E Interpretation—the ordinary course of business

- (1) For the purposes of this Part, other than section 269Q, goods (other than made-to-order capital equipment) that are substitutable goods in relation to goods the subject of a TCO application are taken to be produced in Australia in the ordinary course of business if:
- they have been produced in Australia in the 2 years before the application was lodged; or
  - they have been produced, and are held in stock, in Australia; or
  - they are produced in Australia on an intermittent basis and have been so produced in the 5 years before the application was lodged;
- and a producer in Australia is prepared to accept an order to supply them.

- (2) For the purposes of this Part, goods that:
- (a) are substitutable goods in relation to goods the subject of a TCO application; and
  - (b) are made-to-order capital equipment;
- are taken to be produced in Australia in the ordinary course of business if:
- (c) a producer in Australia:
    - (i) has made goods requiring the same labour skills, technology and design expertise as the substitutable goods in the 2 years before the application was lodged; and
    - (ii) could produce the substitutable goods with existing facilities; and
  - (d) the producer is prepared to accept an order to supply the substitutable goods.
- (3) In this section:

made-to-order capital equipment means a particular item of capital equipment:

- (a) that is made in Australia on a one-off basis to meet a specific order rather than being the subject of regular or intermittent production; and
- (b) that is not produced in quantities indicative of a production run.

Your company has been nominated by the Local Industry ( or the Kompass/Industry Capability Network and other Manufacturer search sights) in respect of being a current producer of the type of equipment shown below:

Electrical Fuse Holders & Fuse Bases, Rates to 690Volts

Technical Information on the above products will be forwarded to you upon request.
