As at 30 June 2018 there were an estimated 62,900* Unlawful Non-Citizens (UNC) in Australia. Of these around 47,050* had overstayed a visa in the visitor category

 Numbers provided are an estimate only, and are rounded. The Estimate of Unlawful Non-Citizens is reported annually. No IMAs are included in this data. Some people included may have since resolved their immigration status and further interrogation of departmental systems is required to ascertain an individual's actual current status.*

Note: this information cannot be disaggregated further into citizenship or age group details.

Onshore removals from immigration detention, of those who arrived on a sponsored family visitor (short stay) visa, and had an unlawful reason as an overstayer for the period 2015-16 to 2018-19 (Jul-Apr).

Note: this is based on the latest arrival visa and may not necessarily be the visa that the client last held upon removal. Figures are based on removals data only and has not been matched to any other data sources.

Figures for 2018-19 (Jul-Apr) were extracted from Departmental systems on 07 May 2019. As data has been drawn from a dynamic source, any historical figures provided may differ slightly in previous or future reporting.

Removed from onshore immigration detention (voluntary and involuntary) to their country of origin or a third country.

This table accounts for onshore removals figures only and does not include departures of non-citizens from Offshore Processing Centres. Please consult Regional Returns and Removals Section for reporting on this cohort.
