FOI Request: FA 18/11/01349

File Number: ADF2018/23430

Dear [REDACTED]

Freedom of Information (FOI) request - Access Decision

On 23 November 2018, the Department of Home Affairs (the Department) received a request for access to document under the Freedom of Information Act 1982 (the FOI Act).

The purpose of this letter is to provide you with a decision on your request for access under the FOI Act.

1 Scope of request

You have requested access to the following document:

A copy of the current policy determining when people in regional processing countries can be brought to Australia for medical treatment.

2 Authority to make decision

I am an officer authorised under section 23 of the FOI Act to make decisions in respect of requests to access document or to amend or annotate records.

3 Relevant material

In reaching my decision I referred to the following:

- the terms of your request
- the document relevant to the request
- the FOI Act
- Guidelines published by the Office of the Information Commissioner under section 93A of the FOI Act (the FOI Guidelines)

4 Document in scope of request

The Department has identified one document as falling within the scope of your request. This document was in the possession of the Department on 23 November 2018 when your request was received.

5 Decision

The decision in relation to the document in the possession of the Department which fall within the scope of your request is to release one document in part with deletions.

6 Reasons for Decision

Detailed reasons for my decision are set out below.

My findings of fact and reasons for deciding that the exemption provision applies to that information are set out below.

6.1 Section 33 of the FOI Act – Documents affecting National Security, Defence or International Relations

Section 33(a)(iii) of the FOI Act permits exemption of a document if disclosure of the document would, or could reasonably be expected to cause damage to the international relations of the Commonwealth.

The phrase 'international relations' has been interpreted as meaning the ability of the Australian Government to maintain good working relations with other governments and international organisations and to protect the flow of confidential information between them. The expectation of damage to international relations must be reasonable in all the circumstances, having regard to the nature of the information; the circumstances in which it was communicated; and the nature and extent of the relationship. There must be real and substantial grounds for the conclusion that are supported by evidence.

The information contained in the document relates to regional processing arrangements in Nauru and Papua New Guinea. The Republic of Nauru and Papua New Guinea are sovereign nations responsible for regional processing in their countries

I consider that the release of the information marked 's33(a)(iii)' would adversely impact on the ability of the Department to maintain good working relations with those Governments. This assessment is made considering the nature of the information contained within the document and the current nature and extent of the Australian's Governments relationship with the Government of Nauru and the Government of Papua New Guinea.

As such I have decided that the information redacted and marked 's33(a)(iii)' is exempt from disclosure under section 33(a)(iii) of the FOI Act.
