Cindy

Thanks.

1. Unless there are compelling medical reasons, supported by second opinions, to do with life and death situations, or situations involving the risk of life-time injury or disability, transfers to Australia should be avoided as a general rule and should in any event become increasingly rare.
2. On the basis of the advice provided below, I expect to see at least 50% of this caseload returned within 4 weeks.
3. I should like to see the entire caseload reviewed, where the timeframe for return is > 1 month.

Please report back on each of these instructions.

Regards,

MP
