Dear

Hope you re keeping well

With the Min Sub on its way to the Minister in next month or so – can I please check that this work was sufficiently addressed?

The approach document on last page says:

MEDIA, PUBLIC COMMUNICATIONS AND PRIVACY

The approach to media and public communications will be managed on a case-by-case basis, noting the guiding principle to protect the privacy of the child. Under this principle, this includes information that could lead to the identification of the child or their family members, including names and addresses. In accordance with the security and privacy laws of each jurisdiction, and any relevant information sharing arrangements, particular protections should be in place to protect any information that could endanger a child or their family members. s. 47E(d)
