This interview is being conducted with the assistance of (Interpreter ID) s22(1)(a)(ii) who is an interpreter in the s22(1)(a)(ii) language.

I need information about you and your arrival in Australia. This interview will be recorded.

s47E(d)

You are expected to give true and correct answers to the questions I ask.

You should understand that if the information you give at any future interview is different from what you tell me now, this could raise doubts about the reliability of what you have said.

The Department is careful to protect the privacy of all information given by you during this interview. This information will not be made available to authorities in the country of your habitual residence. The exception to this is if a determination is made that you have no lawful basis to remain in Australia. In this situation, personal information may be provided to authorities of a foreign government where disclosure is necessary for your removal from Australia.

The information you provide at this and any future interview may be used or disclosed as the basis for checks with authorities in countries through which you have passed or in which you have resided since you left your country of origin.

The information may also be used to carry out checks with international humanitarian agencies concerning any contact you may have had with them before coming to Australia.

The information may also be disclosed to Australian Government agencies including those involved with security and law enforcement matters.

The information may also be disclosed to Australian Government agencies authorised to receive information, including that in relation to foreign affairs, border control, health, security and law enforcement matters.

The recording for this or any future interview may be disclosed to language experts contracted by the Australian Government to assist in verifying your place of origin.

Record of interview (recorded)

Pre-screening

Interview <sup>s47E(d)</sup>

Part A: Interview pre-amble

This interview is being conducted at <sup>s47E(d)</sup> Christmas Island Detention Centre, <sup>s47E(d)</sup> between myself, <sup>s22(1)(a)(ii)</sup>, an officer of the Department of Immigration and Border Protection, and <sup>s22(1)(a)(ii)</sup>.

This interview is being conducted with the assistance of (Interpreter ID) <sup>s22(1)(a)(ii)</sup> who is an interpreter in the <sup>s22(1)(a)(ii)</sup> language.

I need information about you and your arrival in Australia. This interview will be recorded.

<sup>s47E(d)</sup>

You are expected to give true and correct answers to the questions I ask.

You should understand that if the information you give at any future interview is different from what you tell me now, this could raise doubts about the reliability of what you have said.

The Department is careful to protect the privacy of all information given by you during this interview. This information will not be made available to authorities in the country of your habitual residence. The exception to this is if a determination is made that you have no lawful basis to remain in Australia. In this situation, personal information may be provided to authorities of a foreign government where disclosure is necessary for your removal from Australia.

The information you provide at this and any future interview may be used or disclosed as the basis for checks with authorities in countries through which you have passed or in which you have resided since you left your country of origin.

The information may also be used to carry out checks with international humanitarian agencies concerning any contact you may have had with them before coming to Australia.

The information may also be disclosed to Australian Government agencies including those involved with security and law enforcement matters.

The information may also be disclosed to Australian Government agencies authorised to receive information, including that in relation to foreign affairs, border control, health, security and law enforcement matters.

The recording for this or any future interview may be disclosed to language experts contracted by the Australian Government to assist in verifying your place of origin.

Do you understand what I have said?

Do you understand the interpreter?

You don't understand the interpreter?

What language do you speak?

But what is your native tongue?

So why don't you understand the interpreter?
