Subject: Meeting tomorrow

Sec and Comm,

We have our regular meeting tomorrow at 10AM.

Last Friday with Mandy a conversation was started about my personal future plans.

The timing of our meeting tomorrow is fortuitous, as it gives me an opportunity to raise this topic with you both.

I just wished to flag this prior to the meeting.

Regards

John

John,

Thanks for your email. I appreciate your position on this and am happy for you to send the material to me acknowledging your personal views on the issue.

I appreciate the update you have provided to me on your personal position. I am happy to acknowledge your position which ever direction you decide to take. I know working through these issues may be very difficult and I am very happy to chat anything through if it helps.

Kind regards

Mandy

Mandy

As you know I met with the Sec and Comm on Thursday. I expect to send an email soon with my decision about which option I will take up (work on HA health planning, annual leave for a while, or departure). Even if I chose the latter I will still seek to obtain temporary health related work in the APS.

Dear John

I am sorry that you have come to this position, but I do understand and respect your decision. You have been a very effective and diligent colleague and I have valued your counsel and advice, especially as regards the development of quality systems of clinical practice and assurance.

I wish you all the very best and will unhesitatingly provide a positive reference regarding your work here, should it be asked.

Regards,

Sec and A/Comm

I have thought about the three options.

I have decided to resign from the Department, and request to be released with the minimum notice possible.

For your information I am hoping to obtain further temporary work in the APS for a few months.

Thank you once again. I have greatly appreciated the opportunity to work in this foundation role for the Department and ABF, that has allowed me to contribute to the health of patients and staff, and to Australia's national security. I wish you all the best as you lead the organisations to their next step in their evolution.

Regards

John

Thank you.

I met with s22(1)(a)(ii) yesterday and s22(1)(a)(ii) has sent the necessary paperwork to me and is checking on a couple of my questions.

My thought was that Friday would be my last day.
