

For Official Use Only

Your reference: FA 19/12/00078 OBJ2019/60563

Our reference: RFI 1121

Immigration Integrity and Goods Statistics Section

Total number of the Illegal Maritime Arrival (IMA) Legacy Caseload cohort that have been removed from Australia by receiving country.

Between 15 December 2014 to 29 November 2019 there were 728* IMAs removed from onshore detention.

* Removed from onshore immigration detention to their country of origin or a third country.

Citizenship at Removal	15 Dec 2014 to 29 Nov 2019*
Sri Lanka	336
Iran	95
Vietnam	88
Unknown	66
Iraq	37
Indonesia	24
Bangladesh	21
Afghanistan	18
Pakistan	15
India	9
Papua New Guinea	6
Lebanon	<5
Stateless	<5
Sudan	<5
Jordan	<5
Fiji	<5
Liberia	<5
Total	728

Total number of IMAs refused by the Immigration Assessment Authority (IAA) and removed from Australia by receiving country.

Between 15 December 2014 to 29 November 2019 there were 84* IMAs removed from onshore detention, who were refused by the Immigration Assessment Authority (IAA).

* Removed from onshore immigration detention to their country of origin or a third country.

Citizenship at Removal	15 Dec 2014 to 29 Nov 2019*
Sri Lanka	36
Vietnam	18
Iraq	11
Iran	6
Lebanon	<5
Bangladesh	<5
Pakistan	<5
Afghanistan	<5
Total	84

Author	Immigration Integrity Section – Data Division
Data Sources	Departmental Systems
Cleared for	Intended Use
Notes	Data between 15 December 2014 and 30 June 2019 were extracted from Departmental systems on 9 July 2019. 1 July 2019 to 29 November 2019 data were extracted from Departmental systems on 07 Jan 2020. As data has been drawn from a live systems environment, the figures provided may differ slightly in previous or future reporting. Immigration Assessment Authority (IAA) data was sourced from Public Information and Reporting Section

Released by Department of Home Affairs under the Freedom of Information Act 1982