Last 48 Hours

- Messaging to transferees on Nauru has been developed following the riots on Manus to re-emphasise the Australian Government's policy, transferee options and their behavioural obligations.
- The Nauru OPC Emergency Command Operation was stood up at s47F (Canberra time) due to a possible altercation. Indications are that the initial protest will be peaceful and the situation is currently being monitored for any escalation.

The protest was initially intended to bring attention to the Transferees wanting to smoke. There were other issues that the Transferees wanted addressed and a "Sit down" was organized for after the protest to get the issues listed. CSO s22(1) and CSO s22(1)(a)(ii) spoke to the Transferees for some time. CSO s22(1) as a negotiator and CSO s2 as interpreter. Transferee s47F was the main spokesman for the Transferees. Transferee s47F demeanour was calm and reasonable for the entirety of the negotiation. At approx. s47 hrs the Transferees clapped and appeared to be happy, the crowd then dispersed. Key Transferees taken aside for private meeting to address additional concerns (details on attached statement by CSO s22(1)). Action Taken: IR submitted and statements taken.	s47F

Sitrep#1 - s47E(d) - Peaceful protest - Nauru OPC - 25 April 2014

As at s47F hrs AEST

At approximately s47F local time (s47F AEST), approximately 120 transferees in OPC3 commenced a peaceful protest.

The group was chanting for water to be turned on in the amenities block, showers and toilets.

Due to water restrictions currently in place, water supply to the OPC has been restricted.

s22(1)(a)(ii) are arranging for the pumps on the water tanks to be primed in order to supply water to the compound for the showers and other amenities.

At s47F hrs local time, the transferees were advised that water would be available in approximately 1 hour.

The transferees have now dispersed.

No further SitReps will be issued.

Comcare has not been notified.

For further information contact the Detention Operations Duty Officer on s22(1)(a)(ii).
