Good morning s. 22(1)(a)(ii)

Released by Department of Home Affairs
under the Freedom of Information Act 1982

I acquitted the hold on 22 July 2020 following advice an ARTG had been issued and sighting the document.

The consignee was IQR Group 200 Adelaide Street Brisbane.

I don't know exactly why I released the hold other than thinking the assignment of the ARTG was the completion of TGA concern. I certainly had not seen the email requesting further hold that was received late on 21 July.

My apologies for jumping the gun.

URGENT

Good morning team,

Prior to me requesting release of these goods to the importer could you please provide me with the name and contact details of the ABF officer(s) responsible for the examination and photographs of this consignment.

Released by Department of Home Affairs
 under the Freedom of Information Act 1982

I am planning to issue IQR Group Pty Ltd with an Infringement Notice and may require further evidence (notes or a statement) from your examination officers at a later date.

Once I have this information, I will formally request release of these goods to the Importer.

Request:

Please can you provide the relevant details for the ABF officers by COB today?

Many thanks,

Intended use:

The Disposable Medical Mask is intended to be worn to protect against the spread or transmission of infectious germs during surgical interventions in operating theatres and other medical facilities. The main aim is to protect the patient against infectious germs. In addition, in certain situations the wearer should be protected against splashes of potentially contaminated liquids and viable particles.

Using Limits and Warnings:

1. Inspect the mask every time before use. Discard and replace it if damaged.
 2. Do not use this mask when contaminants become thick enough to threaten your health.
 3. Do not alter, wash, recycle, abuse or misuse this mask. One-time use only.
 4. This product helps protect against some particles, however does not completely eliminate the risk of sickness or infection.
 5. Failure to follow any instruction or warning can reduce respirator effectiveness and may result in illness, disability or death.
 6. Skin contact materials may cause allergic reactions to some individuals.
- Storage Conditions and Shelf Life
Store in relative humidity lower than 80%, in well-ventilated room without corrosive gas.
Avoid high temperature.
Shelf life of unopened products is 2 years from date of manufacture.
Specific date of manufacture is on each individual package.

Intended use:

The Disposable Medical Mask is intended to be worn to protect against the spread or transmission of infectious germs during surgical interventions in operating theatres and other medical facilities. The main aim is to protect the patient against infectious germs. In addition, in certain situations the wearer should be protected against splashes of potentially contaminated liquids and viable particles.

Using Limits and Warnings:

1. Inspect the mask every time before use. Discard and replace it if damaged.
 2. Do not use this mask when contaminants become thick enough to threaten your health.
 3. Do not alter, wash, recycle, abuse or misuse this mask. One-time use only.
 4. This product helps protect against some particles, however does not completely eliminate the risk of sickness or infection.
 5. Failure to follow any instruction or warning can reduce respirator effectiveness and may result in illness, disability or death.
 6. Skin contact materials may cause allergic reactions to some individuals.
- Storage Conditions and Shelf Life
Store in relative humidity lower than 80%, in well-ventilated room without corrosive gas.
Avoid high temperature.
Shelf life of unopened products is 2 years from date of manufacture.
Specific date of manufacture is on each individual package.

Hi s. 47F(1)

Yes we can examine this there. Can you advise if goods are available for inspection and how they are to be presented. Are the in the container or out on the floor etc.

Is there a preference for a day or time that you would like us to attend.
