Question:

I would like to know how many people are waiting for a citizenship ceremony in the City of Melbourne council, and how many people took part in each of the previous two citizenship ceremonies in the City of Melbourne council?

Response:

As at 23 July 2021, there were 957 people whose applications for Australian citizenship by conferral had been approved and who were waiting to attend an Australian citizenship ceremony at City of Melbourne council (VIC).

In the last two ceremonies held by City of Melbourne council, there were 29 people and 68 people who acquired Australian citizenship.
