Question:

I would like to know the number of applicants waiting to be allocated to the citizenship ceremony (who have been approved but are now waiting to be allocated to a ceremony) for the following two councils in Sydney, NSW as of 15th July 2021. 1. Hornsby Council 2. Ku-ring-gai Council.

Response:

1. As at 23 July 2021, there were 1,250 people whose applications for Australian citizenship by conferral had been approved and who were waiting to attend an Australian citizenship ceremony at Hornsby Shire Council (NSW).
2. As at 23 July 2021, there were 789 people whose applications for Australian citizenship by conferral had been approved and who were waiting to attend an Australian citizenship ceremony at Ku-Ring-Gai Council (NSW)
