

Statistics and Reporting Section

Freedom of Information Request FA 22/01/00666

Held Detention –The Park Hotel Melbourne, Alternative Place of Detention (APOD)

As at 6am 28 January 2022, there have been 97 persons detained at The Park Hotel.

The average length of stay for detainees at The Park Hotel Melbourne was 50 days.

There are 54 detainees still being held in detention. Of these:

- 26 detainees were currently in held detention who were moved to Melbourne Immigration Transit Accommodation (ITA) or a different held detention facility
- 28 detainees were currently located at The Park Hotel Melbourne APOD

There were 43 detainees have been released from held detention. Of these

- 29 detainees have been released into the community on a visa or a residence determination
- 9 detainees were removed from Australia
- 5 detainees were resettled in a third country

Source: Internal Department of Home Affairs systems, 28 January 2022

Statistics (by facility)

Immigration Detention Facility	Detainee tests undertaken cumulative	Detainees pending testing results	Detainees results returned negative cumulative	Detainees test results returned negative last 24 hours	Count of detainees returned positive results cumulative	Detainees test results returned positive last 24 hours	Detainees in operational quarantine	Detainees in medical quarantine	Detainees refused immigration clearance	Detainees in isolation	Detainees placed in quarantine with flu like symptoms pending IHMS consultation/testing	Detainees placed in precautionary quarantine due to Public Health Unit advice and have not been tested
s. 47E(d)
Melbourne APOD	200	0	177	0	23	0	0	0	0	S.
s. 47E(d)												