MINISTER: Clare O'Neil

ADVISER: s.22(1)(a)(ii)

Meeting Brief – Social Cohesion Five Country Ministerial Teleconference

Meeting commencement time: 07:30 AEST

Date and Location: 18 October 2023 at Parliament House (Protected Level)

Person/ Organisation

You are convening a Five Country Ministerial (FCM) teleconference to discuss the Hamas attacks on Israel, and its associated impacts on domestic social cohesion settings across the Five. A copy of the Agenda is at Attachment A. Biographies for attending Five Country Ministers is available at Attachment B.

Has the Minister met with this person/organisation in the past?

Yes.

- Canada – The Hon Dominic Le Blanc PC KC MP – s. 33(a)(iii)
- New Zealand – The Hon Andrew Little MP (in a caretaker capacity) – s. 33(a)(iii)
- United Kingdom – The Right Hon Suella Braverman KC – s. 33(a)(iii)
- United States of America – Mr Alejandro Mayorkas – s. 33(a)(iii)

Purpose of Meeting

In response to the recent escalation of Hamas-Israel hostilities, you requested the convening of an ad-hoc FCM Ministerial Call on Social Cohesion. This meeting provides an opportunity for the Five to share the impacts of the Hamas/Israel conflict in challenging existing domestic social cohesion settings, and to also outline governments responses to mitigate any such emerging threats.

PROTECTEDBackground

- On 7 October Hamas and other militant groups, including the Palestinian Islamic Jihad, launched a surprise attack against Israel from Gaza. Large numbers of soldiers and civilians were taken hostage (estimated currently to be between 100 and 150). Some of those taken were foreign nationals – from the US, Thailand, Nepal, UK, Canada, Mexico and Germany.
- s. 33(a)(iii). Launching 'Operation Iron Swords', Israel responded with a barrage of air strikes on targets in the Gaza strip.
 - As at 17 October, over 1,370 Israelis and around 2,750 people in Gaza have been killed.

s. 33(a)(iii)

Recent Events in Australia

- On 10 October, a pro-Palestinian rally gathered out the front of the Sydney Opera House while the building was lit in the colours of the Israeli flag amid escalating tensions in the Middle East
 - It is reported that some protestors waved Palestinian flags and chanted slogans like "f... the Jews", "free Palestine" and "shame Israel".
- Various Government Ministers publicly condemned this behaviour; noting these actions were "completely un-Australian" and diametrically opposed with Australian values "as one of the most successful multicultural countries in the world".
- Over the course of the weekend of 14-15 October, several pro-Palestinian and pro-Israeli protests have taken place in capital cities across the country (including Sydney, Melbourne, Canberra and Perth). The press has reported widely on demonstrations, arrests and other incidents.
- On 16 October – the Australian Government House of Representatives agreed to a motion regarding the Hamas Attacks on Israel and Ongoing Conflict; that among other things:
 - acknowledges what has unfolded is deeply distressing for many in the Australian community, close to the heart of many, and it is important that we maintain respect for each other here at home as people express their views;
 - condemns all forms of hate speech and violent extremist activity, including Antisemitism and Islamophobia;
 - recognises an attack on any religion is an attack on all religions and that we all share a responsibility to unite, condemn and defeat such an attack on our common values and way of life;
 - notes that undermining social cohesion and unity by stoking fear and division risks Australia's domestic security; and
 - affirms in the strongest possible terms that hateful prejudice has no place in Australia.
- On 17 October – Mike Burgess, ASIO Director-General of Security, noted that the agency is anticipating "spontaneous violence" and has asked all Australians to play their part in minimising tensions, noting of a direct correlation between language that inflames tension and out of that tension "does a grow a small number of people who think violence is the answer".

I am writing to provide you with a further update on our progress in delivering the action items agreed at the FCM Ministers Social Cohesion Call on 18 October.

On 8 November, A/g Secretary Foster convened a follow-up Secretary (or equivalent) Level Call to discuss/endorse the work of officials in progressing responses to tasking. These are as below:

s. 47C(1)

s. 33(a)(iii)

At the Secretary Call, it was also agreed that no additional FCM Minister Social Cohesion Calls are required at this point in time - but that Australia is happy to convene a follow-up Ministers Call at very short notice should there be a significant further escalation of conflict activities.

Many thanks again. Please reach out if you have any questions.

We also noted as an outcome from the FCM Ministers Call, that the follow-up FCM Secretary Level Call should discuss whether FCM Ministers need to convene a follow up meeting. Grateful for any views you may have on this. Should there be limited appetite for a further Ministerial call at this time, Australia would propose that a follow up call is not needed at this time, but would be happy to convene an FCM Ministers Call should circumstances change such as a significant escalation in the crisis.

Many thanks again. Happy to discuss.
