Note: The Government has offered a permanent stay in Australia, on a case-by-case basis, to Ukrainian nationals who hold a Temporary Humanitarian Concern (subclass 786) visa. More information can be found on the Department's website: Offer of a Resolution of Status Visa to Ukrainian Temporary Humanitarian Concern \(subclass 786\) visa holders

Some of those made an offer may still have a Protection visa application on-hand pending processing of the Resolution of Status (RoS) visa, and others may be in the process withdrawing their Protection visa application following the grant of the RoS visa.

Part 2

All refusals recorded for the period 12 May 2024 to present were for the reason 'Refused – Departed Australia' and therefore no country information was used when making these decisions as the decision does not rest on Country of Origin Information (COI). No Country of Origin Information was relied upon by the Department in any grant/s from 12 May 2024 to present. This may occur under a number of provisions under the Migration Regulations 1994.
