Following up on s. 22(1)(a)(ii) request, I confirm that Jillian is staying at the s. 47F(1). This comes up on CTM as the following:

On this s. 47F(1) website, the total cost of the hotel is $880 for the duration of the stay.

I had a look at the s. 47F(1), and s. 47F(1), all which come up on CTM and are within policy. Unfortunately, they are all 20 minutes + away from the conference venue and Jillian's hotel. s. 47F(1), while still being significantly cheaper than the s. 47F(1).

I'm writing to seek s 23 approval for s. 47F(1) to have the following flights and accommodation booked, noting that the primary purpose of the travel is to support the Special Envoy at the Mayors Summit Against Antisemitism.

03 - 05 September: Gold Coast (Mayors Summit Against Antisemitism)

Accommodation at s. 47F(1) - $627.30 for the duration ($313.65 per night)
05/09 QF593 OOL to SYD 11:20 - $384.56

Over the rate/out of travel policy Business Case

Approval is sought to exceed the accommodation expenditure limit

Rationale:

- 1. s. 47F(1) [redacted] . No other hotels were available that met this requirement.
- 2. Support for Special Envoy: Given the Special Envoy’s schedule, it is essential for s. 47F(1) to remain in immediate proximity to provide timely assistance.

Conclusion

The higher accommodation cost is justified by the operational necessity of support the Special Envoy effectively, ensuring availability and maintaining efficiency during a busy program of meetings.

Subject: ONE WEEK: IMPORTANT UPDATES | Gold Coast Summit Against Antisemitism

Dear S. 47F(1),

Just one week before we gather on the Gold Coast for the 2025 Australian Mayors Summit Against Antisemitism (3–5 September), our nation finds itself at a pivotal moment.

Yesterday, the Australian Government confirmed that Iran's Islamic Revolutionary Guard Corps \(IRGC\) orchestrated antisemitic attacks on Australian soil - including the firebombing of a Melbourne synagogue and an attack on a kosher café in Sydney. In response, Australia has expelled Iran's ambassador and begun steps toward designating the IRGC a terrorist organisation.

These revelations are a stark reminder that antisemitism is not a distant problem. From our largest cities to regional centres and remote communities, Jewish Australians are experiencing harassment, threats, and intimidation. We have even seen individuals discouraged from attending this very Summit.

Your participation is therefore an act of leadership. It sends a clear message: hate and fear will not silence us.

This Summit is not only about dialogue - it is about practical steps to safeguard our shared values, strengthen resilience, and ensure that all Australians - whether Jewish, Christian, Muslim, Hindu, or of any faith or background - can live with dignity and security.

SECURITY UPDATE

The very fact that a summit dedicated to combating hate and building inclusion must also guard against it, is a reminder of why we are here. Your safety and comfort remain our highest priority.

- This is a private gathering exclusively for registered participants.
- We kindly ask that conference and hotel venue details are not shared publicly.
- Queensland Police officers will be present throughout the event.
- Please bring a valid government-issued photo ID. Entry will only be granted to registered participants whose details match their identification.

Hi s. 22(1)(a)(ii),

That sounds like a good idea, though it shouldn't need to be too formal a process.

Just a reminder that I am on leave tomorrow and again for two weeks from Monday. I'm not sure if Envoy Support has visibility of these arrangements (whether via the system or Malcolm) or of our informal office leave calendar but we should ensure that you have this visibility.

In my absence for the coming fortnight, I was wondering if it would be advisable to arrange for someone to act in my capacity as Director, particularly to be able to keep the procurement processes moving? s. 22(1)(a)(ii) (CCed) may be the best candidate for this arrangement and, presumably, would be eligible for a higher duties allowance?

I do believe Jillian will be attending the mayors' summit but s. 47F(1) is always the best source of information in respect of Jillian's diary.

Cheers,

s. 22(1)(a)(ii)

Hello s. 22(1)(a)(ii)

Welcome back – I hope your leave was restful ☺.

Just giving you a heads up that s. 22(1)(a)(ii) will be sending through a request for the ASECA office to consider the development of a whole of year procurement projection plan, including any known travel. This will support the budgeting and financial strategy and ensure all activities are anticipated and costed in advance.

Regarding travel, grateful advice on whether the Special Envoy will attend the 2025 Australian Mayors summit on the Gold Coast (3-5 September)? I came across this - 2025 Australian Mayors Summit Against Antisemitism - but departmental systems did not allow access to the schedule/list of guest speakers.

Warmest
