Hi s. 22(1)(a)(ii)

s. 22(1)(a)(ii) has generated the projected subclass 189 invitation results (attached) for the June invitation round based upon requested details.

These results are to be treated 'as at' 25/05/2026 – changes to EOI details or scores occurring between now and the planned invitation run date may alter the specific invitation result. At this stage we have not shared the draft correspondence for subclass 189. Do let us know if you want to review a copy of the same.

Please review these at your earliest opportunity and let us know if they meet your expectations ?

Hi s. 22(1)(a)(ii)

I have attached two mock-ups to this email, for the main landing page for SkillSelect and the Invitation Rounds page.

We already have a banner on the landing page announcing the introduction of MFA so that will be easy to update for the invitation round. I have also done a version for the Invitation Rounds page in case we want to duplicate the banner to that page too. I looked at the wording that was used to announce the November invitation round on Facebook but it didn't really work for how we do things on our webpages. I have pushed it out to two sentences though as just one sentence, announcing the date, did not have much impact on the page (the banner seemed a bit skinny and easy to overlook.)

Kind regards,

Good afternoon S. 22(1)

Please find below a web publishing update to update the banner on the SkillSelect landing page and add a banner to the Invitation Rounds page. This update is to announce the date of the upcoming invitation round on the two pages most likely to be visited by clients.

Unlike previous web publishing updates there is no test link, they have just provided the format of the current banner, and the text that will be substituted into it "The next invitation round for the Skilled Independent visa (subclass 189) visa will be held on 4 June 2026. Please ensure your Expression of Interest is up to date and that all the information you have provided is accurate."

Could you please seek Anne's approval for the update?

Hi s. 22(1)(a)(ii)

Thanks for your team's work on this, however, I think there might have been some confusion along the way. My original Teams message to s. 22(1)(a)(ii) (below) was in response to a previous question from her about how her team should respond to social media enquiries about when the next invitation round would be held. My comments related to social media responses, not to a possible Department-initiated social media post.

Given that the round will be held tomorrow, and advice of this has already been published on the Department's website, we do not support a social media post at this time. We also expect that advice of future rounds will be published on the website, so there should be no need for round-specific social media posts.

Thanks again and apologies for any confusion.

Hi Andrew,

Based on the simulation of the invitation round, the split for invitations will be approximately 78% onshore and 22% offshore. As there is always attrition between the number of invitations issued and the number of primary applications lodged, we will monitor lodgements to determine the actual split of applications received.

Hi s. 22(1)(a)(ii)

s. 22(1)(a)(ii) has mocked up updates to the main landing page of SS and the Invitation rounds page, with the below text, to announce the upcoming invitation round. I'm thinking we can just do it on the invitation rounds page. Just wanted to canvass it with you before going ahead.

The next invitation round for the Skilled Independent visa (subclass 189) visa will be held on 4 June 2026. Please ensure your Expression of Interest is up to date and that all the information you have provided is accurate.

Hi s. 22(1)(a)(ii)

I have attached two mock-ups to this email, for the main landing page for SkillSelect and the Invitation Rounds page.

We already have a banner on the landing page announcing the introduction of MFA so that will be easy to update for the invitation round. I have also done a version for the Invitation Rounds page in case we want to duplicate the banner to that page too. I looked at the wording that was used to announce the November invitation round on Facebook but it didn't really work for how we do things on our webpages. I have pushed it out to two sentences though as just one sentence, announcing the date, did not have much impact on the page (the banner seemed a bit skinny and easy to overlook.)

Kind regards,

OFFICIAL

Dear s. 47F(1) and s. 47F(1),

Further to discussions at a recent meeting attended by Assistant Secretary, Ms Anne Leo, with the Law Council of Australia, concerning how the Department of Home Affairs advises stakeholders of upcoming SkillSelect invitation rounds, I am writing to provide an update.

At that meeting, it was indicated that the Department expected to conduct an invitation round by the end of May. Due to technical reasons, this has not been possible.

The next invitation round for Skilled Independent (subclass 189) visas will instead be held on 4 June 2026. This information will also be published on the Department's website.

The Department's intention is that future information regarding invitation rounds will be communicated through publication on the Department's website. We will continue to engage with stakeholders on broader program settings and appreciate your ongoing engagement.

Yours sincerely,

Hi s. 22(1)(a)(ii)

Thanks so much for your update – looping in s. 22(1)(a)(ii) as director as we will flag this with Karin for visibility. I am expecting we will be required to work up a brief for SES, and will come to you with a draft to seek your review/input.

I have a few initial questions – happy to discuss verbally if easier:

- s. 47E(d)

- Could I please confirm the level of sign off for the invitation round – was it approved at SESB1 or SESB2 level for this round? Authority for 2025-26 invitation rounds was at AS level \(EC25-001627\).
- Thanks for your update about publishing information on the website – did you have any more detail you can share about the stakeholder feedback around the social media posts? The issue of how notice of rounds is given was raised with Anne at an LCA event and stakeholders advised that they did not use social media, and preferred updates on the website. We haven't otherwise received any further details about this feedback.

OFFICIAL: Sensitive

Hi s. 22(1)(a)(ii)

Yesterday we were able to confirm with DEWR that an invitation round will be able to be run on 4 June 2026. It will be for 10,000 invitations to subclass 189 EOI applicants, for occupations across all four tiers with a higher proportion of medical specialists (Tier 1 occupations) and healthcare workers and teachers identified in Ministerial Direction no.105 (Tier 2 occupations).

Attached are the simulated results for this round (actual results may differ slightly due to the gap in timing between simulation and the round).

In response to feedback that Anne has received from stakeholders, she is keen for invitation rounds to be publicised via the website rather than social media.

Accordingly we are currently in the process of updating the main landing page of SS and the Invitation rounds page to advise of this round. We will be also advising LCA and MIA and have asked SMOG to let the S&Ts know.

Let me know if anything further is required to brief your SES.

Hi s. 22(1)(a)(ii)

Could we please commence the ECR process for issuing an invitation round on 4 June 2026? Requirements are below,

Total number of invitations – 10,000

For any EOIs where subclass 189 is preferred (but not exclusively)

s. 47E(d)

Grateful for an indication of how much time we'd need before we can send to DEWR, so that we are able to determine whether 4 June 2026 is achievable. Thanks.

Kind regards,

Hi s. 22(1)(a)(ii)

As discussed, subject to DEWR's advice about the availability of their staff to execute a SkillSelect invitation round, we should proceed with the next round on 04/06/26.

s. 47E(d)

Could you please work with DEWR and s. 22(1)(a)(ii) team to prepare the necessary documentation and make arrangements for this round, so that DEWR can undertake it on 04/06/26? Could you also please advise SMOG to communicate to States and Territories, and our Policy colleagues, so they can advise Policy SES and/or pursue public comms. We will also need to arrange to update the Home Affairs website to advise of an upcoming round.

Thanks,

s. 22(1)(a)(ii)
