

Survey of Business Skills visa holders

Form
1010

Australian Government
Department of Home Affairs

About this form

Important – Please read this information carefully before you complete your survey. Once you have completed your survey we strongly advise that you keep a copy for your records.

This form should only be completed by people who hold a Business Skills (Provisional) or Business Talent (Migrant) or Business Skills (Residence) visa or Business Skills (Migrant) visa. It should only be completed when you are instructed to do so by the Department of Home Affairs (the department).

The Australian Government encourages people from overseas with business expertise and a successful business background to come to Australia in order to contribute their expertise to the Australian economy. The Business Skills visa under which you were granted your visa, provides such an avenue.

The Australian Government expects that after a period of time in Australia, people granted a Business Skills (Migrant), Business Talent (Migrant) and Business Skills (Residence) visa, will provide valuable input to the Australian economy by becoming actively involved as owners or part owners at a senior level in business which does one or more of the following:

- develop links with international markets;
- create or maintain employment;
- export Australia's goods and/or services;
- substitute for goods and services currently imported to Australia;
- introduce new or improved technology;
- add to commercial activity and competitiveness in sectors of the Australian economy.

As evidence of your business activities, you are required to provide the department with supporting documents. Examples of evidence that you may provide in support of this monitoring program is available from the department's website www.homeaffairs.gov.au

Partner

'Partner' means your spouse or de facto partner (including same-sex partners).

Immigration assistance

A person gives immigration assistance to you if he or she uses, or claims to use, his or her knowledge or experience in migration procedure to assist you with your visa application, request for ministerial intervention, cancellation review application, sponsorship or nomination.

In Australia a person may only lawfully give immigration assistance if he or she is a registered migration agent or is exempt from being registered. Only registered migration agents may receive a fee or reward for providing immigration assistance.

If an unregistered person in Australia, who is not exempt from registration, gives you immigration assistance they are committing a criminal offence and may be prosecuted.

Migration agents in Australia

Migration agents in Australia must be registered with the Office of the Migration Agents Registration Authority (Office of the MARA) unless they are exempt from registration.

Migration agents outside Australia

Migration agents who operate outside Australia do not have to be registered. The department may give some overseas agents an ID number. This number does not mean that they are registered.

Note: Some Australian registered migration agents operate overseas.

Migration agent information

A migration agent is someone who can:

- advise you on the visa that may best suit you;
- tell you the documents you need to submit with your application;
- help you fill in the application and submit it; and
- communicate with the department on your behalf.

If you appoint a migration agent, the department will assume that your migration agent will be your authorised recipient, unless you indicate otherwise.

Your migration agent will be the person with whom the department will discuss your application and from whom it will seek further information when required.

You are not required to use a migration agent. However, if you use a migration agent, the department encourages you to use a registered migration agent. Registered agents are bound by the Migration Agents Code of Conduct, which requires them to act professionally in their clients' lawful best interests.

Information on migration agents, including a list of registered migration agents, is available on the Office of the MARA website www.mara.gov.au

You can also access information about migration agents on the department's website www.homeaffairs.gov.au

Exempt persons

The following people do not have to be a registered migration agent in order to provide immigration assistance, but they must not charge a fee for their service:

- a close family member (spouse, de facto partner, child, parent, brother or sister);
- a member of parliament or their staff;
- an official whose duties include providing immigration assistance (eg. a Legal Aid provider);
- a member of a diplomatic mission, consular post or international organisation.

Appointing a migration agent/exempt person

To appoint a migration agent/exempt person you should complete Part F – Options for receiving written communications.

Your migration agent/exempt person should complete form 956 Advice by a migration agent/exempt person of providing immigration assistance.

Form 956 is available from the department's website www.homeaffairs.gov.au/allforms/

Options for receiving written communications

If you do not appoint a migration agent/exempt person you may still authorise another person, in writing, to receive written communications on your behalf. This person is called the authorised recipient.

Authorised recipient information

All written communication about your application will be sent to your authorised recipient, unless you indicate that you wish to have health and/or character information sent directly to you.

The department will communicate with the most recently appointed authorised recipient as you may only appoint one authorised recipient at any time for a particular application.

You will be taken to have received any documents sent to that person as if they had been sent to you.

To appoint an authorised recipient you should complete:

- Part F – Options for receiving written communications; and
- form 956A Appointment or withdrawal of an authorised recipient.

Note: Migration agents/exempt persons do not need to complete form 956A.

Form 956A is available from the department's website www.homeaffairs.gov.au/allforms/

Consent to communicate electronically

The department may use a range of means to communicate with you. However, electronic means such as fax or email will only be used if you indicate your agreement to receiving communication in this way.

To process your application the department may need to communicate with you about sensitive information, for example, health, police checks, financial viability and personal relationships. Electronic communications, unless adequately encrypted, are not secure and may be viewed by others or interfered with.

If you agree to the department communicating with you by electronic means, the details you provide will only be used by the department for the purpose for which you have provided them, unless there is a legal obligation or necessity to use them for another purpose, or you have consented to use for another purpose. They will not be added to any mailing list.

The Australian Government accepts no responsibility for the security or integrity of any information sent to the department over the internet or by other electronic means.

If you authorise another person to receive documents on your behalf and they wish to be contacted electronically, their signature is required on form 956 or 956A to indicate their consent to this form of communication.

Note: Electronic communication is the fastest means of communication available and the department prefers to communicate electronically because this results in faster processing.

Important information about privacy

Your personal information is protected by law, including the Privacy Act 1988. Important information about the collection, use and disclosure (to other agencies and third parties, including overseas entities) of your personal information, including sensitive information, is contained in form 1442i Privacy notice.

Form 1442i is available from the department's website www.homeaffairs.gov.au/allforms/ or offices of the department. You should ensure that you read and understand form 1442i before completing this form.

The state/territory economic development department that sponsored your visa application is interested in the information you provide in this survey. Your agreement is sought to provide a copy of this completed survey to the sponsoring government agency. Please note that providing this information to your state/territory sponsor will not affect your visa status and state/territory governments respect and are bound by privacy principles.

The department has authority under the Migration Act 1958 to collect a range of personal identifiers from non-citizens in certain circumstances. For more detailed information you should read information form 1243i Your personal identifying information, which is available from the department's website

www.homeaffairs.gov.au/allforms/

'Certified copies' of documents mean copies authorised or stamped as being true copies of originals by a person or agency recognised by the law of your country. In Australia, they must be certified by a Justice of the Peace or Commissioner for Declarations or by a person before whom a statutory declaration may be made.
