

From: Angus Baxter
To: Assistance Bill Consultation
Subject: Effectiveness of the bill
Date: Tuesday, 4 September 2018 9:46:45 PM

---

Assuming that all the mainstream communication services are encrypted (which most of them seem to be); what will this bill accomplish assuming the services are designed to be secure?

Additionally, what is stopping the service providers from removing their own backdoors in an update removing their ability to assist you?

Are there known backdoors this bill is attempting to exploit?