Don't you even think about it.....!

At the moment trying to get Freedom of Information on what anyone does, let alone a Government minister or even an MP - appears far easier to invade a foreign country during the daytime then getting your FOI request even acknowledged and in no way, shape or form even considered and / or answered.

So don't start invading people's privacy under the catch-all "terrorism BS" as we know what that is - Just a BS distraction so you geniuses can spy on people by stealth.

How about you focus on getting rich multi-millionaires like Turncoat to pay their fair share of taxes (in the country HE LOVES SO MUCH.....HERE) instead of hiding his $$$$$ in the Cayman Islands ?

I look forward to your prompt reply.
