COMMUNIQUE

September 2024

The Police Ministers Council and Standing Council of Attorneys-General received and considered out-of-session the Family, Domestic and Sexual Violence Working Group (Working Group) report on Options to improve police and justice responses to high-risk and serial family, domestic and sexual violence perpetrators.

Police Ministers and Attorneys-General:

- (a) Noted the Working Group report, which responds to the National Cabinet tasking of 1 May 2024 to develop options for improving police responses to high risk and serial perpetrators, including considering use of focused deterrence and fixated threat strategies.
- (b) Agreed by majority on options to proceed for consideration by National Cabinet.
