Ministers and Portfolio responsibilities

The Home Affairs Portfolio (the Portfolio) has four Ministers:

- The Hon Karen Andrews MP, Minister for Home Affairs
- The Hon David Littleproud MP, Minister for Agriculture, Drought and Emergency Management
- The Hon Alex Hawke MP, Minister for Immigration, Citizenship, Migrant Services and Multicultural Affairs
- The Hon Jason Wood MP, Assistant Minister for Customs, Community Safety and Multicultural Affairs.

The Portfolio constitutes a number of Commonwealth law enforcement, intelligence and policy entities, and includes:

- The Department of Home Affairs
- The Australian Border Force (ABF)
- The Australian Criminal Intelligence Commission (ACIC)
- The Australian Federal Police (AFP)
- The Australian Institute of Criminology (AIC)
- The Australian Security Intelligence Organisation (ASIO)
- The Australian Transaction Reports and Analysis Centre (AUSTRAC)
- The Office of the Special Investigator (OSI).

The Portfolio has a central role in delivering the Government's agenda to achieve a prosperous, secure and united Australia. The Portfolio's unique capabilities, powers and activities support the delivery of the Government's international and domestic policy and operational priorities. The Portfolio has diverse responsibilities in delivering the security and social cohesion that underwrite Australia's economic prosperity. These include managing and responding to civil contingencies and national emergencies, domestic elements of national security, critical infrastructure, including transport security, federal law enforcement, criminal justice, cyber security, intelligence, border control, immigration and citizenship, humanitarian issues, multicultural affairs and trade related functions.

Portfolio Overview

The Portfolio facilitates legitimate trade and manages Australia's migration program so that it delivers economic and social benefits to communities and businesses across Australia. While the COVID-19 pandemic has impacted migration, the Portfolio's ongoing work will ensure that Australia is positioned to enjoy the benefits of an open economy and society once borders re-open.

Working with domestic and international partners, the Portfolio protects Australia from diverse and evolving threats from within and outside our borders. The Portfolio provides operational and intelligence capabilities, underpinning the systems and frameworks that enable coordinated national efforts to mitigate risks to the community, democratic institutions, businesses and critical infrastructure.

The Portfolio has policy and programmatic responsibility for:

- Commonwealth law enforcement and countering transnational and serious organised crime
- counter-terrorism
- cybersecurity policy and coordination
- counter-foreign interference
- transport and civil maritime security
- emergency management and critical infrastructure protection
- border protection and the facilitation of trade and travel
- immigration and citizenship
- multiculturalism and social cohesion.
