Department of Home Affairs

Section 1: Entity overview and resources

1.1 Strategic direction statement

The Department of Home Affairs (the Department), inclusive of the Australian Border Force (ABF), is responsible for the central coordination of strategy and policy leadership on national security and national resilience matters. Its guiding purpose is to enable a prosperous, secure and united Australia.

Administrative Arrangement Orders made on 1 June 2022, with effect 1 July 2022, saw the protective security services and criminal law enforcement policy functions previously resident within the Department transferred to the Attorney-General's Department. In addition, emergency management functions were transferred to the newly established National Emergency Management Agency (NEMA) within the Home Affairs Portfolio on 1 September 2022.

In 2022 and 2023, the Department will continue to contribute to Australia's security, prosperity and unity by safeguarding Australia's national security interests, enabling economic growth and protecting against loss, and maintaining Australia's cohesive multicultural society. Challenges to Australia's national interests occur across a broad spectrum, ranging from terrorism and cyber-attacks, to natural disasters, pandemics, and regional conflict. These challenges are becoming increasingly complex, with varying levels of national significance and impacts on the delivery of the Portfolio's key priorities.

The Department will continue to support Australia's economic growth by facilitating the flow of travellers through the international border and promoting Australia as a competitive destination for migrants, tourists and students. The Department, through the Migration Program, also contributes to the Government's goals of lifting productivity and building sovereign capability. The Department is reimagining the purpose, structure and objectives of Australia's immigration system to bolster the Australian economy in the long term and address skills shortages – including by increasing the permanent Migration Program ceiling to 195,000 places to help ease widespread critical workforce shortages.

The Department, through the ABF, continues to deliver critical border protection and national security outcomes while facilitating the movement of people and goods across the border. Operation Sovereign Borders, supported by the Australian Defence Force, keeps Australia's borders secure from unauthorised maritime migration and is critical to maintaining Australia's sovereignty and security.

The COVID-19 pandemic accelerated growth of the digital economy, and with it, came heightened risks, such as cyber threats. To protect our critical systems, the Department, in concert with other relevant agencies, is leading Australia's approach to cyber security policy. The Portfolio continues to engage with industry and academia, and work with likeminded international partners to uplift cyber security standards and shape global norms. The Department is leading work to ensure the security of critical infrastructure and systems of national significance, and working to lift cyber security across the entire Australian digital economy to create a more secure digital environment for all Australians. The Department continues to work with owners, operators and state and territory regulators to identify and mitigate risks across all critical infrastructure sectors to ensure they are resilient in the face of all hazards.

The Department will work with partners across all levels of government to improve Australia's capacity to anticipate, mitigate, respond, and recover from emergencies. This includes emergency management and disaster risk reduction, climate security and options to strengthen Australia's civil contingency capabilities to better enable the Government to respond to domestic crises. The Department, in collaboration with NEMA delivers a whole-of-nation approach to disaster risk reduction and emergency response. This strengthens the Commonwealth's capacity across the disaster management and recovery continuum, and provides a single point of authority for all disaster management strategies, programs and operations.

The Australian Government has taken significant steps to counter foreign interference by investing in counter foreign interference capabilities, while simultaneously strengthening the legislative framework. The Department continues to build on Australia's success as a strong and cohesive multicultural society through our social cohesion and multicultural programs. The Department is also contributing to Australia's democratic resilience and international reputation through initiatives that support individuals fleeing conflict, prevent exploitation of migrant workers and promote an inclusive national identity based on shared democratic values. The Department continues to provide social cohesion, citizenship, and settlement programs to support the cohesion of Australia's inclusive society and build Australia's democratic resilience. This ensures that Australian society remains united, and our liberal democratic institutions and values are resilient, in the face of external threats.

Terrorism remains an enduring threat to the safety and security of Australia. The nature of the terrorism threat continues to evolve, spurred by international events, including the Taliban's takeover of Afghanistan, technology uptake, and the increasing radicalisation of minors. Further, ideologically motivated violent extremist groups are increasingly active in Australia. This demands a vigilant, agile and coordinated national response. The use of the internet enables a borderless environment for terrorists and violent extremists to garner support by disseminating violent content and propaganda. For this reason, partnerships with communities and technology companies are integral to ensure that we can effectively address the threat of terrorism by increasing community resilience to extremism and extremism online.

Australia continues to be confronted by a series of strategic challenges. The measures being progressed in the October 2022–23 Budget will bolster the Department's ability to contribute to Australia's prosperity, security and unity.

Section 2: Outcomes and planned performance

Government outcomes are the intended results, impacts or consequences of actions by the Government on the Australian community. Commonwealth programs are the primary vehicle by which government entities achieve the intended results of their outcome statements. Entities are required to identify the programs which contribute to government outcomes over the Budget and forward years.

Each outcome is described below together with its related programs. The following provides detailed information on expenses for each outcome and program, further broken down by funding source.

Note:

Performance reporting requirements in the PB Statements are part of the Commonwealth performance framework established by the Public Governance, Performance and Accountability Act 2013. It is anticipated that the performance measure described in PB Statements will be read with broader information provided in an entity's corporate plans and annual performance statements – included in annual reports – to provide a complete picture of an entity's planned and actual performance.

The most recent corporate plan for the Department of Home Affairs can be found at: https://www.homeaffairs.gov.au/commitments/files/corporate-plan-2022-23.pdf

Section 3: Budgeted financial statements

Section 3 presents budgeted financial statements which provide a comprehensive snapshot of entity finances for the 2022–23 budget year, including the impact of budget measures and resourcing on financial statements.

3.1 Budgeted financial statements

3.1.1 Explanatory notes and analysis of budgeted financial statements

Departmental

Budgeted departmental comprehensive income statement

This statement presents the expected financial result for the Department and recognises expenses and revenue on a full accrual basis.

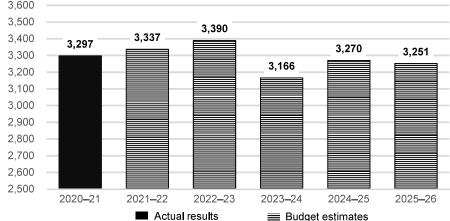

Expenses

In 2022–23, total department expenses (Figure 1) are expected to increase from $3,337.4 million in 2021–22 to $3,390.0 million, an increase of $52.6 million.

The increase in budgeted departmental expenses is attributable to employee benefits increasing by $115.6 million, finance costs and other expenses increasing by $18.8 million, offset by a $62.9 million decrease in supplier expenses, $3.7 million decrease in depreciation and amortisation, and one-off write-down expense of $15.2 million in 2021–22.

3,600 Departmental expenses [$million]

Revenue

The total departmental revenue is expected to decrease from $3,008.4 million in 2021–22 to $3,004.2 million in 2022–23. The decrease of $4.1 million is due to a decrease in the Department's own-source income of $5.7 million and one-off gains of $21.4 million in 2021–22; offset by an increase in Revenue from Government (appropriation revenue) of $23.0 million.

Budgeted departmental balance sheet

This statement reports the financial position of the Department, its assets, liabilities and equity.

In 2022–23, total departmental assets are expected to decrease from $4,630.2 million in 2021–22 to $4,326.3 million. The decrease of $303.9 million is due to a decrease of $198.4 million in non-financial assets, and a decrease of $105.5 million in financial assets.

Departmental liabilities are expected to decrease from $3,450.5 million in 2021–22 to $3,332.5 million, a decrease of $118.0 million due to a decrease in lease liabilities.

Budgeted departmental statement of cash flows

The cash flow statement reports the extent and nature of cash flows, grouped according to operating, investing and financing activities. The budgeted cash flow reflects the impact of new measures, changes to own-source revenue and changes in expenses and capital investment as reported in the income statement and balance sheet at Tables 3.1 and 3.2.

Capital budget statement - departmental

This statement reports the forward plan for capital expenditure. Total departmental capital appropriations (Figure 2) have decreased in 2022–23 by $102.1 million, as a result of a decrease of $5.8 million in Capital budget – Bill 1 (DCB) and a decrease of $96.4 million in Equity injections – Bill 2.

Statement of asset movements

This statement reports the budgeted movements by asset class of the Department's non-financial assets during the current financial year. The decrease of $198.4 million in the estimated net book balance from 1 July 2022 to 30 June 2023 is due to the net impact of asset purchases of $393.1 million, offset by depreciation and amortisation of $591.4 million.

Administered Schedule of budgeted income and expenses administered on behalf of Government

This schedule identifies the main revenue and expense items administered by the Department on behalf of the Government.

Expenses

In 2022–23, administered expenses (Figure 3) are expected to decrease from $2,371.2 million in 2021–22 to $2,279.1 million, a decrease of $92.0 million. The change in the budgeted administered expenses are attributable to supplier expenses increasing by $205.3 million, and increasing depreciation, amortisation and other expenses of $18.0 million, offset by personal benefits and grants decreasing by $93.7 million and one-off write-off of $221.6 of financial assets in 2021–22.

Revenue

In 2022–23, the Department will administer the collection of revenue (Figure 4) on behalf of the Government of an estimated $20,866.6 million, which is an increase of $1,177.4 million compared to the estimated actual of $19,689.2 million in 2021–22.

In 2022–23, the Department is estimated to collect $20,723.3 million in taxation revenue, which is an increase of $1,163.3 million from $19,559.9 million in 2021–22. The increase is primarily due to an increase of $1,287.5 million in other taxes.

In 2022–23, the Department will administer the collection of non-taxation revenue on behalf of Government of an estimated $143.3 million, which is an increase of $14.1 million from the $129.2 million in 2021–22.

Schedule of budgeted assets and liabilities administered on behalf of Government

This schedule reports assets and liabilities administered by the Department on behalf of the Government. In 2022–23, total administered assets are expected to increase by $0.9 million from $1,374.7 million in 2021–22 to $1,373.8 million. The movement is due to a decrease in non-financial assets of $49.4 million, mainly driven by depreciation in buildings and other property, plant and equipment, offset by an increase in taxation receivables of $50.0 million and transfer of cash of $1.5 million to the Attorney-General's Department due to the Machinery of Government changes.

Schedule of budgeted administered cash flows

This schedule shows the cash flow administered on behalf of the Government. The cash flows largely reflect the transactions of the schedule of income and expenses.

Schedule for administered capital budget

This statement reports the forward plan for capital expenditure. Total capital appropriations have increased by $7.8 million in the 2022–23 financial year compared to 2021–22, as a result of an increase of $0.6 million in Capital budget – Bill 1 (ACB) and an increase of $7.2 million in Administered Assets and Liabilities – Bill 2.

Statement of administered asset movements

This statement reports the budgeted movements by asset class of administered non-financial assets during the 2022–23 financial year.

The decrease of $49.4 million in the estimated net book balance from 1 July 2022 to 30 June 2023 is due to the net impact of an increase in expected asset purchases of $60.6 million, offset by depreciation and amortisation expenses of $110.0 million.
