

Home Affairs Portfolio overview

Ministers and portfolio responsibilities

The Home Affairs Portfolio (the Portfolio) has four Ministers:

- The Hon Karen Andrews MP, Minister for Home Affairs
- Senator the Hon Bridget McKenzie, Minister for Emergency Management and National Recovery and Resilience
- The Hon Alex Hawke MP, Minister for Immigration, Citizenship, Migrant Services and Multicultural Affairs
- The Hon Jason Wood MP, Assistant Minister for Customs, Community Safety and Multicultural Affairs.

The Portfolio constitutes a number of Commonwealth law enforcement, intelligence and policy entities, and includes:

- The Department of Home Affairs, including the Australian Border Force
- The Australian Criminal Intelligence Commission (ACIC)
- The Australian Federal Police (AFP)
- The Australian Institute of Criminology (AIC)
- The Australian Security Intelligence Organisation (ASIO)
- The Australian Transaction Reports and Analysis Centre (AUSTRAC)
- The Office of the Special Investigator (OSI).

The Portfolio has a central role in the delivery of the Government's agenda to achieve a prosperous, secure and united Australia. To achieve this, the Portfolio's diverse responsibilities include managing and responding to civil contingencies and national emergencies, domestic elements of national security, critical infrastructure, including transport security, federal law enforcement, criminal justice including research, cyber security, intelligence, border control, immigration and citizenship, humanitarian issues, multicultural affairs, and trade related functions.

Working with domestic and international partners, the Portfolio protects Australia from diverse and evolving threats across the border continuum. The Portfolio provides operational and intelligence capabilities, underpinning the systems and frameworks that enable coordinated national efforts to mitigate risks to the community, democratic institutions, businesses and critical infrastructure.

In response to the COVID-19 pandemic, the Portfolio continues to have a leading role within the non-health aspects for Australia's recovery, including mitigating the consequences on supply chains, essential services and the reopening of the international border.

The Portfolio has policy and programmatic responsibility for:

- Commonwealth law enforcement and countering transnational and serious organised crime
- counter-terrorism
- · cybersecurity policy and coordination
- counter-foreign interference
- · transport and civil maritime security
- · emergency management and critical infrastructure security
- border protection and the facilitation of legitimate trade and travel
- immigration and citizenship
- multiculturalism and social cohesion.
