UMA Legacy Caseload

Report on Processing Status and Outcomes

May 2026 (released 31 May 2026)

About this report

Coverage

This report provides information on the processing status and outcomes of the applicants who are Unauthorised Maritime Arrivals (UMAs) and are in the UMA Legacy Caseload.

UMAs can only apply for a Temporary Protection Visa (subclass 785) (TPV) or a Safe Haven Enterprise Visa (subclass 790) (SHEV) if the Minister has made a decision that it is in the public interest to lift a legislative bar on making a valid visa application in Australia.

Where the Minister lifts the bar, the Department will advise the UMA that they are eligible to apply for a TPV or a SHEV.

UMAs who applied for, or held a TPV or SHEV before 14 February 2023 are eligible to apply for a permanent Resolution of Status (subclass 851) (RoS) visa. Anyone who had a TPV or SHEV application already on-hand with the Department, including subsequent TPV/SHEV applications, did not need to apply for a RoS visa (their application was/will be automatically be converted to a RoS visa application).

Anyone that enters Australia irregularly on or after 14 February 2023 is not be eligible for a RoS visa.

Data sources and currency

The data sources for this report are based on a range of departmental systems. As data has been drawn from a dynamic system environment, the information is correct at the time of publication and figures may differ slightly from previous or future reporting. As an end of month report, the data date used is the closest to the end of the calendar month.

Glossary of terms

COUNTRY OF CITIZENSHIP – the county of citizenship as recorded in Departmental systems at the time the report is compiled.

UNAUTHORISED MARITIME ARRIVAL (UMA) – an UMA is a person who entered Australia by sea without authority and became an unlawful non-citizen upon entry. All babies born to UMA parents are also UMAs.

PROCESSING STATUS – relates to the processing stage of an application during the administrative decision-making process, from lodgement to when the application is finalised.

RESIDENCE DETERMINATION – is a determination, which the Minister makes under section 197AB of the Migration Act 1958 (Cth) that a person can reside at a specified place in the community instead of held detention (previously referred to as 'community placement'). Recipients subject to a residence determination are free to move about the community but are legally detained.

RoS VISA – permanent Resolution of Status (RoS, subclass 851) visa

TPV – Temporary Protection (subclass 785) visa

SHEV – Safe Haven Enterprise (subclass 790) visa

Technical notes

1. 'Applied and on hand' refers to valid visa applications which the Department has received (or in the case of the RoS visa, some TPV/SHEV applications were converted) and is currently processing and assessing. Includes applications undergoing ministerial intervention.
2. Broadly refers to people who have been refused a TPV, SHEV or RoS visa or have had their TPV, SHEV or RoS visa cancelled and have either not initiated judicial review or have failed at judicial review.
3. 'Otherwise resolved' includes those who became Australian citizens or obtained a non-protection visa and those who departed Australia (including visa cancelled or expired offshore) or died.
4. State and territory of residence – refers to client's last recorded residential address.
5. Tables 3 and 5 show a list of countries of citizenship as recorded in Departmental systems for the persons in the caseload at the time this report is compiled. This citizenship may not have been independently confirmed by the Department. Where a country of citizenship is recorded as Australia this indicates that the person has acquired Australian citizenship.
6. Figures exclude certain cohorts of UMAs that do not form part of the UMA Legacy Caseload (for example, medical transferees from a Regional Processing Centre). The data in table 6 is current as of the last day of a given month.
7. 'Held detention' includes a small number of UMAs who are in correctional facilities.
8. 'Finalised refusals' includes applications undergoing ministerial intervention or judicial review.

Note: from time to time, cases, or groups of cases are remitted by review bodies, or courts, for a fresh assessment of claims. It is also possible that, in rare and exceptional circumstance, the Minister will intervene personally to allow previously refused clients to lodge a second application to enable significant and new information to be considered. When this happens, persons previously reported as refused will now be reported as applied and on-hand with the Department. It is possible that the total number of on hand cases will increase from one month to the next.
