About this report

This report provides monthly and program year data on the Working Holiday Maker (WHM) visa program administered by the Department of Home Affairs (the department). The report has been provided to assist policymakers and stakeholder organisations.

This report is published every six months. Current and previous versions of the report are available on the department's website. These reports are available at:

<https://www.homeaffairs.gov.au/research-and-statistics/statistics/visa-statistics/visit>

Data is sourced from several departmental visa processing and recording systems. Data can be dynamic and there can be delays in transmission of information from the department's global operations. Variations in figures between this report and previous reports can occur. Due to these issues, data from the current financial year should always be considered provisional.

Further information about the Working Holiday Maker visa program is available on the department's website at:

Working Holiday Maker \(WHM\) program \(homeaffairs.gov.au\)

Working Holiday visa \(subclass 417\) \(homeaffairs.gov.au\)

Work and Holiday visa \(subclass 462\) \(homeaffairs.gov.au\)

Additional statistics for the Working Holiday Maker visa program are available on data.gov.au by searching "Working Holiday".

Notes on statistical tables presented by citizenship country

A result of 'na' indicates that the country did not have a Working Holiday Maker arrangement with Australia during the specified period. This may be because the arrangement had not yet commenced or the arrangement is no longer in place. Refer to the table 'Australia's Working Holiday Maker arrangements' in the 'Background to the Working Holiday Maker visa program' section.

A citizenship country of 'Not Specified' can result from eligible dual nationality applicants where the non-eligible nationality has been recorded for the WHM application.

Note 1: Data in years prior to 2017-18 was revised on 1 October 2019, due to better source data becoming available. This may result in minor discrepancies with previously published statistics.

Enquiries

Any comment or enquiries concerning this report should be sent to statistical.coordination@homeaffairs.gov.au quoting Report ID BR0110.

Definition of terms

Citizenship country:	The country of citizenship of the visa applicant or visa holder. Where a visa applicant or visa holder has more than one citizenship country, either the citizenship of the travel document or the citizenship nominated by the visa applicant is used.
Granted:	Unless otherwise specified, the number of visas granted includes all visa grants.
Snapshot date:	The snapshot date is a point in time at which a count is undertaken. In this report, the number of visa holders in Australia at a point in time is used.
Visa applicant:	Used to refer to clients applying for a visa.
Working Holiday Maker:	Refers collectively to both the Working Holiday (subclass 417) visa and the Work and Holiday (subclass 462) visa.

Background to the Working Holiday Maker visa program

The purpose of the Working Holiday Maker (WHM) visa program is to foster people-to-people links between Australia and partner countries, with particular emphasis on young adults. It has been in existence since 1975. Today, the WHM visa program includes two subclasses: the Working Holiday (subclass 417) visa and the Work and Holiday (subclass 462) visa. Partner countries initially comprised a relatively small number of Commonwealth countries. The program now has 49 partner countries and regions from across the world.

Australia has an overarching bilateral arrangement, usually in the form of a Memorandum of Understanding, with each partner country or region. Of the 49 partner countries or regions, 19 are Working Holiday (subclass 417) visa arrangements, and 30 are Work and Holiday (subclass 462) visa arrangements. The key difference between the two visas is that Work and Holiday visa arrangements generally have caps on the number of first visas granted in each program year and additional eligibility requirements.

WHM arrangements are largely reciprocal, providing Australians with similar opportunities overseas. In considering whether to add new WHM partner countries, the Australian Government considers a range of factors, including the ability of the prospective partner to offer reciprocity to Australians, and the strength of existing people-to-people links.

Eligibility requirements

WHM (both Working Holiday and Work and Holiday) visa applicants must:

- be aged 18-30 (inclusive) at time of application. For Canada, France, Denmark, Ireland, Italy and The United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland (including British National Overseas passport holders) the age is 18 to 35 (inclusive).
- hold a passport from an eligible partner country or region. A list of eligible countries and regions is provided in the 'Australia's Working Holiday Maker Visa Arrangements' section of this report
- not be accompanied by dependent children during their stay in Australia
- meet financial, health and character requirements.

Work and Holiday visa applicants must meet additional requirements, which vary between eligible countries, based on the agreements set out in the MOU for partner countries.

More information on specific eligibility requirements for Work and Holiday visa applicants is available on the department's website at:

Work and Holiday visa \(subclass 462\) First Work and Holiday visa \(homeaffairs.gov.au\)

Working while in Australia

All WHMs may work for the full duration of their 12 month stay in Australia, but generally cannot remain with any one employer for longer than six months (by operation of mandatory visa condition 8547), unless an exemption applies or they have obtained written permission from the department.

More information on the circumstances in which WHMs can work longer than six months with the same employer is available on the department's website at:

<https://immi.homeaffairs.gov.au/what-we-do/whm-program/specified-work-conditions/6-month-work-limitation>

Studying while in Australia

All WHMs are entitled to study for a period of up to four months during their 12-month stay in Australia.

Background to the Working Holiday Maker visa program - continued

Second and third Working Holiday visas

First-time Working Holiday (subclass 417) visa holders who complete three months of 'specified subclass 417 work' during their stay become eligible to apply for a second Working Holiday visa. Second Working Holiday visa holders who complete six months of 'specified subclass 417 work' during their stay become eligible to apply for a third Working Holiday visa.

Specified subclass 417 work includes work in the agriculture, mining, construction, tourism and hospitality industries, as well as bushfire and natural disaster recovery work, and critical COVID-19 work in the healthcare and medical sectors.

For the purposes of second and third Working Holiday visa eligibility, eligible work types, dates and postcodes are available on the department's website at:

<https://immi.homeaffairs.gov.au/what-we-do/whm-program/specified-work-conditions/specified-work-417>

Second and third Work and Holiday visas

First-time Work and Holiday (subclass 462) visa holders who complete three months of 'specified subclass 462 work' during their stay become eligible to apply for a second Work and Holiday visa. Second Work and Holiday visa holders who complete six months of 'specified subclass 462 work' during their stay become eligible to apply for a third Work and Holiday visa.

Specified subclass 462 work includes work in the agriculture, construction, tourism and hospitality industries, bushfire and natural disaster recovery work and critical COVID-19 work in the healthcare and medical sectors.

For the purposes of second and third Work and Holiday visa eligibility, eligible work types, dates and postcodes are available on the department's website at:

<https://immi.homeaffairs.gov.au/what-we-do/whm-program/specified-work-conditions/specified-work-462>

The department continues to accept specified work under critical COVID-19 healthcare and medical sectors performed after 31 January 2020 for applicants who apply for a second or third WHM visa.

Processing times

Working Holiday Maker visa processing times are available from department's website at:

<https://immi.homeaffairs.gov.au/visas/getting-a-visa/visa-processing-times/global-visa-processing-times>

The published processing times are updated on a monthly basis to reflect current caseloads and processing pressures. Processing times are impacted each month by changes in application volumes, seasonal peaks, complex cases and incomplete applications

Recent developments in the Working Holiday Maker (WHM) visa program

Any Work and Holiday program developments, including signings and commencement dates for new Work and Holiday visa arrangements, will be announced on the department's website at: <https://immi.homeaffairs.gov.au/what-we-do/whm-program/latest-news>

- From 1 October 2024, eligible nationals of China, Vietnam and India will be able to register in their respective Subclass 462 visa ballot. Selected ballot registrants will still need to meet standard Subclass 462 requirements in order to be granted a visa.
 - This was following the 14 May 2024 Federal Budget announcement, that the Australian Government will implement a Work and Holiday (subclass 462) visa pre-application process (a ballot), with an AUD$25 registration fee, for China, Vietnam and India. The ballot is an electronic random selection process, designed to provide an equitable, streamlined and transparent means of selecting prospective visa applicants.
- From 1 July 2024, WHMs working in certain sectors may continue to work for the same employer in Australia for more than 6 months without seeking permission. The full list of exemptions is available at 6 month work limitation \(homeaffairs.gov.au\)
- On 1 July 2024, the WHM arrangements made under the Australia-United Kingdom Free Trade Agreement (Australia-UK FTA) was fully implemented. These arrangements include:
 - increasing the maximum eligible age for United Kingdom WHM applicants to 35 from 1 July 2023; and
 - the removal of specified work requirements for United Kingdom WHMs from 1 July 2024.
- From 2 February 2024, Working Holiday Makers can count paid or volunteer work for natural disasters recovery work. This includes work in declared areas affected by cyclone or other severe weather, as 'specified work' to apply for a second or third WHM visa. Working holiday makers must have carried out this work from 31 December 2021 in declared disaster affected areas.
- On 29 December 2023, through a side letter to the Australia-India Economic Cooperation and Trade Agreement (AI-ECTA), the Australian Government agreed to extend access to the Work and Holiday (subclass 462) visa program to eligible nationals of India, by 29 December 2024. The arrangement will provide up to 1,000 Subclass 462 visa places per year to eligible nationals of India through the ballot process, commencing 1 October 2024.
- On 8 September 2023, Australia signed a Strategic Partnership with the Philippines, including a new reciprocal Work and Holiday visa for Australians and Filipinos, supporting stronger economic, cultural and people-to-people links. This new Work and Holiday visa arrangement will allow up to 200 young Filipinos and Australians each year to enjoy a 12-month holiday in each other's country, during which they may undertake short-term work and study. Commencement details for this arrangement will be published on the department's website when available.

Executive Summary

Key Statistics

This executive summary covers the WHM program from 1 July 2023 to 30 June 2024 (the 2023-24 program year).

The WHM program has been tracking at an upward trend since full re-opening of Australia's borders following the COVID-19 Pandemic. Both lodgments and grants of WHM visas have increased in the 2023-24 program year. The increase in demand of the WHM program can be attributed to program setting changes, including age increases and specified work changes.

- As at 30 June 2024 there were 170,437 WHM (subclass 417 and subclass 462) visa holders in Australia, up from 137,391 at 30 June 2023
- A total of 234,556 WHM (subclass 417 and subclass 462) visas granted, compared with 224,431 visa grants in the same period in 2022-23, including:
 - 154,704 first, 34,494 second and 4,712 third Working Holiday (subclass 417) visa grants
 - 24,939 first, 12,844 second and 2,849 third Work and Holiday (subclass 462) visa grants
- The United Kingdom, France, Republic of Ireland, Japan and South Korea were the top five citizenship countries of the Working Holiday (subclass 417) visa grants in 2023-24, cumulatively accounting for 67.7 per cent of the total.
- Indonesia, The United States of America, Argentina, Thailand, and Vietnam were the top five citizenship countries of the Work and Holiday (subclass 462) visa grants in 2023-24, cumulatively accounting for 63 per cent of the total.

1 Applications lodged for WHM program

In 2023-24, 253,606 visa applications were lodged across the total WHM program, a 14.4 per cent increase compared to 221,696 in 2022-23.

3 Grant rates

Working Holiday (subclass 417) visa program

The grant rate for first Working Holiday visas in the six month period ending 30 June 2024 was 99.9 per cent. The grant rate for second Working Holiday visas was 99.7 per cent. The grant rate for third Working Holiday visas was 99.6 per cent.

Work and Holiday (subclass 462) visa program

The grant rate for first Work and Holiday visas in the six month period ending 30 June 2024 was 96.7 per cent. The grant rate for second Work and Holiday visas was 99.9 per cent. The grant rate for third Work and Holiday visas was 99.8 per cent.

The generally high grant rates for WHM visas are indicative of the low risk nature of this caseload. The large proportion of online applications for this caseload also contributes to the high grant rate. A number of automated eligibility checks occur during online applications, alerting clients early in the process if they do not meet visa requirements.
